

Three Seats in the New Group Executive Board of DLF-TRIFOLIUM

Truels Damsgaard, aged 47, took over as CEO on 1 August 2006 upon the retirement of CEO Aksel Nissen. Since 1995, Truels Damsgaard has been part of the DLF-TRIFOLIUM A/S Executive Board with Aksel Nissen. On 4 August 2006, the Board of Directors of DLF-TRIFOLIUM A/S appointed Morten Andersen, Chief Financial Officer, aged 46, as member of the Executive Board of DLF-TRIFOLIUM A/S and new member of the Group Executive Board assuming responsibility for the finance, IT and the personnel department. Furthermore, the board of directors has appointed Gert van Straalen, aged 53, as new member of the Group Executive Board.

Gert van Straalen is managing director of the subsidiary company, Innoseeds Group, having domicile in Holland. In the Group Executive Board he will assume responsibility for the R&D activities of the Group next to his responsibility for Innoseeds Group.

DLF-TRIFOLIUM A/S, having a DKK 2bn turnover, has a world leadership position in grass and clover seeds with a global market share of nearly 20%, and a market share in the EU of approx. 45%. The Group has subsidiaries in a series of European countries and the US, as well as sales offices in e.g. Russia, China and New Zealand.

From the left, Chief Financial Officer, Morten Andersen, CEO, Truels Damsgaard and Gert van Straalen, Managing Director of the subsidiary company, Innoseeds Group.